On August 6, 2025, Deputy Borja responded to a Meet the Citizen call at a local massage spa located in the 10500 block of Jones Rd in Cy-Fair. Upon arriving he met with the reportee at a different location from the business in question. Deputy Borja began gathering information from the reportee regarding a possible brothel house being operated out of the business. Once Deputy Borja gathered the information he needed to take his investigation further, he and other units went to the business to attempt to make contact with someone. As he entered the business, Deputy Borja observed an Asian juvenile female behind the counter of the business. Deputy Borja identified her and placed her in the back seat of his marked patrol unit for her safety.

As the investigation went on, it was determined that the Harris County Sheriff's Office Human Trafficking Unit needed to respond to the scene due to the possibility of the juvenile being trafficked as a sex worker. HCSO Human Trafficking responded and took control of the scene. It was determined by the Human Trafficking unit that the juvenile need to be transported to the CAC (Children's Assessment Center) for a forensic interview.

Due to Deputy Borja's professionalism and doing his due diligence as a peace officer, his actions rescued a young woman from the clutches of the sex trafficking industry that runs rampant in the
