Presentation of Heroism Medal to Garland Police Officer Gregory Stevens and Garland Independent School District Security Officer Bruce Joiner.

On May 3, 2015, Garland ISD Security Officer Bruce Joiner and Garland Police Officer Gregory Stevens were providing security at the main entrance of the Curtis Cullwell Center in Garland, Texas where a controversial event was in progress. They were intercepting cars as they approached, verifying their identity and redirecting them when necessary. Because of the nature of the event and attacks by radical groups worldwide, Joiner and Stevens were on heightened alert. As yet another auto approached, Security Officer Joiner approached to assist them. Two male individuals exited the vehicle and started firing with assault rifles hitting Joiner in the leg. Joiner went down and Officer Stevens returned fire with his service Glock, taking down both individuals. The Garland Swat Team, already at the Center, responded to the gun fire and quickly took control at the site.

Based on worldwide mass murder events by terrorist groups, if the two individuals had been allowed to enter the Center, there would have likely been a high loss of life inside. We owe a great deal to these two first-responders and their actions on that day.

We are here today to honor both men because of their heroic actions on that day.

It is my honor and privilege to award Police Officer

Bruice Joiner and Gregory Stevens

Registrar's Note:*Proof of the Maternal Bloodline.

If the bloodline goes through the maternal side, there must be acceptable evidence of the connection between the woman and her parents, as well as between the woman and her child. A Will or Bible record explicitly describing the relationship is of course preferred. By themselves census records usually will not suffice, unless a census record shows the father and/or mother living in the married daughter's household, but other indirect evidence may establish the linkage. If a Will, Deed, or Court Record is used to show her maiden name but doesn't indicate her married name ("to my daughter Mary"), more proof is required to show the marriage and establish both her married and maiden names.

The burden of proof is met if a father's Will list his daughter by her married name, for example: Mary Jones (maiden name) marries George Smith and Mary's father lists her as Mary Smith in his Will.

Memorial Applications

Did you know that a deceased male person can join the SAR? Proof documents are still required just like a Regular Application and the cost of a Memorial Application is $418.00.

From the Desk of the Chaplain*WHAT DOES THE LORD REQUIRE OF YOU & ME?

► Certain dates on the calendar need no explanation and demand no commentary. Several of them are anxiously anticipated and warmly welcomed:

1. January 1st – New Year
2. July 4th – Independence Day
3. December 25th – Christmas

► Other dates, however, prompt a much more solemn response...especially these dates:

1. September 11th – Terrorist Attack on the World Trade Center Towers
2. November 22nd – President John F. Kennedy Assassinated
3. December 7th – Pearl Harbor / War in the Pacific Began

► None of these dates require anything of us, but that's not the case with another date. It needs no elaboration, but it is different because it requires specific action on our part...APRIL 15TH!! On that date each year, we are required to pay Uncle Sam for the privilege of living in the United States of America. And if we don't pay our taxes, we will pay penalties instead. (Remember the Fram commercials – "Pay me now or pay me later")

► God is rich in mercy and full of grace for all of us, yet He requires certain things of us who are citizens of His kingdom. Sometimes we think that because our sins are forgiven, it really doesn't matter how we live. His Holy Word tells a different story and our lives (and our country) will be blessed if we trust and obey His commands. Here are just a few to consider:

1. Micah 6:6 – "And what does the Lord require of you? To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God"

2. 2 Chronicles 7:14 – “If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven and will forgive their sins and will heal their land (country)” I don’t know about you but our country needs healing. Pray for our country and its leadership!!!)

3. 1 Corinthians 6:19 – “Do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit who is in you?” God calls each of us to a life of purity – to purity of mind, purity of motives, and purity of morals. Our bodies are God’s temple, the place where His Holy Spirit has come to dwell. God requires us to glorify Him with our bodies as well as our spirits. They all belong to Him...and like not paying our taxes, there are consequences for not following His requirements...for us and our country.

Ladies Tour ~ April 1, 2016

For some of us, the Texas SAR Ladies Tour to the George W. Bush Presidential Library was memorable, to say the least. Bill Watts had arranged for a large bus to take the ladies to the library. Because the large bus broke down the day before, we were sent two smaller buses to use.

After meeting in the lobby of the hotel, we went outside to board the buses. The first group of us went to the bus that was first in line. It seemed a little dark going up the steps, even though it was 10:30 in the morning. I then noticed the black wall that separated the driver from the rest of the bus. After finding a seat, I realized that this bus was a little different. The seating area was U-shaped around the sides and back of the bus. Behind the seats was a narrow ledge holding champagne glasses. But Bill hadn't provided anything to put in them. Music played through speakers in the ceiling. And then there was the pink neon lighting and flashing green disco lights. All this made for an interesting ride down the highway to SMU. The ladies on the other, regular, bus missed a lot of fun.

After arriving at our destination, we went to Café 43 for lunch. The ladies were seated, eight to a table, in various parts of the room. Nearing the end of our lunch, someone special walked behind me heading to a table in the corner. It was Laura Bush, meeting for lunch with daughter Jenna and several others.

After lunch, we went through Security to enter the museum. The center of the building has a 360°, 20-ft. tall video screen at the top of the high walls. Also in this area are exhibited some of the beautiful gifts that were given to the President and First Lady from countries all over the world.

To the right is the entrance to the temporary exhibit galleries. The current exhibit, “The Path to the Presidency”, is an interactive history of campaigns and elections in the United States.

The other side of the building is the permanent exhibit gallery. This area has artifacts, documents, and videos pertaining to President Bush’s years in office. There is a large piece of steel from the World Trade Center in New York City. It is called “impact steel” because it was struck directly by one of the hijacked planes.

Some of Laura’s beautiful dresses are displayed in this area. At the end of the gallery is a full-size reproduction of the Oval Office. According to the docent, this is the only Oval Office reproduction where visitors are allowed to sit on the sofas and even at the President’s desk.

After touring the museum there was time for shopping at the museum store. And then...back to the party bus for the fun ride back to the hotel!

As a member of the East Fork Trinity Chapter I believe that we as a Chapter had more members participate than any other Chapter in the State of Texas. Not pictures but men who attended the convention are Glenn Atterberry, Leslie Anderson, Ken Morrill, Paul Ridenour and Gary Snowden. I think that is all. If I missed anyone I apologize but I think this is all of the men who attended the 2016 Texas State Convention from East Fork Trinity Chapter of the Texas Sons of the American Revolution. PAT OURSELVES ON THE BACK!
