President's Comments

EFT Color Guard participated in Heath Parade in the 4th July Parade. Several members of the color guard either walked or road the float. Members of color guard at the parade was Dennis Verling, Bob and Darlene Kubin, Gary and Mindy (DAR) Lovell, Margaret Anderson (DAR), Montie Monzingo and Vivian Dennis-Monzingo, David Routh, David Rediger, David and Barbara (driver of sound suv) Powell, John Greer, Walt and Barbara Thomas with their daughter and I took pictures. The EFT SAR was well appreciated for their appearance in the Heath Parade. We are thinking of coming back next year since it starts early and only 1.5 miles long. There is a chance that the Color Guard will get to fire off their muskets at the start of the parade.

As everyone knows our July meeting was called off due to problems at the Texas Land and Cattle. Everything should be OK for our August meeting.

July 11 thru July 19 was the National SAR Congress Houston. The congress must have been very successful. Few of the members did attend the congress.

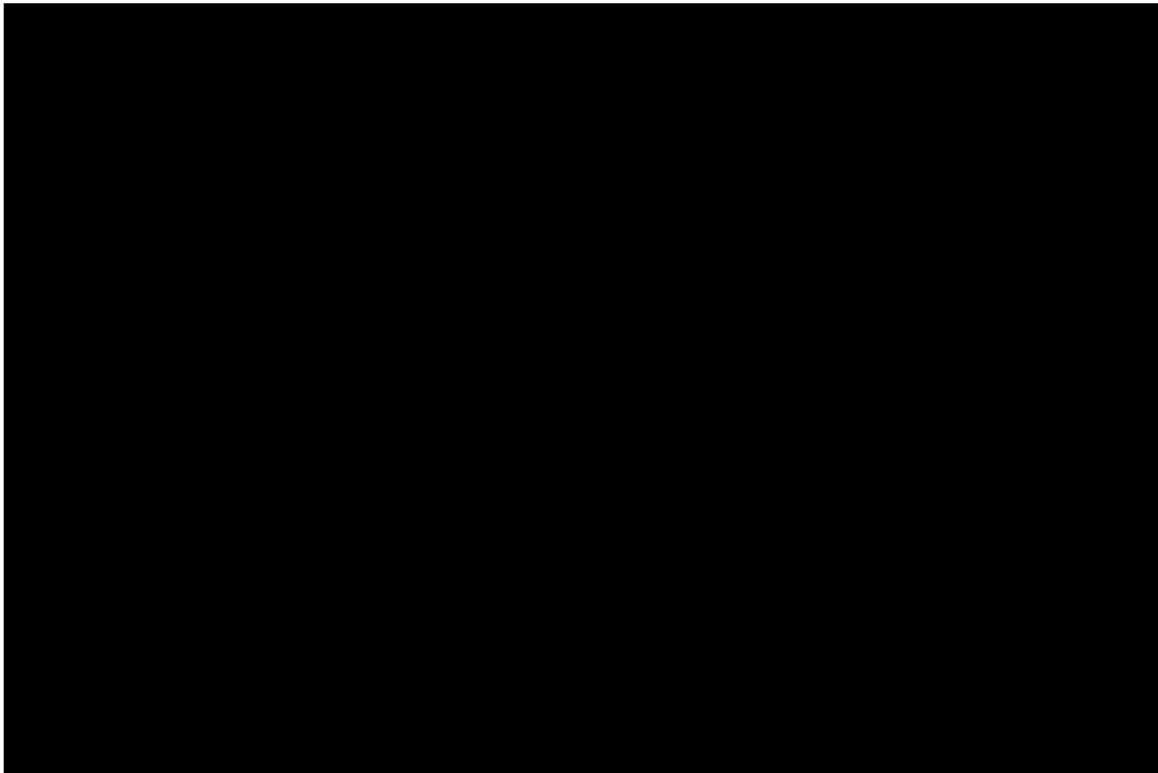

August – Father Loyd Morris talk on “Role of Ministry during Revolution War’

August 11 – Marking of 2 Past Texas SAR Presidents at Oakwood Cemetery, Corsicana more information will be given by Dennis Verling.

August 18 – District 6 Meeting Texas Land & Cattle Steak House

In September – Richard McCaslin will speak on ‘Tainted Breeze: The Great Hanging at Gainesville, Texas 1862’. He was to be the speaker in July and would like to give his talk for the September meeting.

Picture of July program. July program was one of our best programs ever!

Independence Day Parade in Heath.

It looks like Gary and Mindy Lovell harvested a fine crop of folks at the Independence Day Parade in Heath.
