

TEXAS SOCIETY SONS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION

EAST TEXAS CHAPTER NUMBER 57

GREG GILLILAND – SECRETARY

AUGUST 2022 MEETING MINUTES

The chapter met at Jason's on August 4, 2022 at 6:45 PM. The meeting was called to order by Mickey Cole, President. Pledges to the United States, Texas and SAR flags were given. J. D. Denton gave the invocation. The minutes and treasurer's report which were published on the web site were approved with no changes.

New business: J.D.Denton proposed a change to the meeting day. The first proposal of Wed was discussed and dismissed due to conflicts with some church and school activities. It was motioned and seconded to move to the second Tuesday. This motion was approved on condition that the organization could find a place to meet which will not charge a fee per meeting. If a suitable place cannot be found, we will hold future discussion to remain at Jason's Deli or change location.

New Business. The state has a program to award a lapel pin with the SAR emblem on it to anyone who recruits a new member.

Flag Certificates: Bill and Richard have presented three flag certificates this year. If you present a flag certificate please see if you can obtain a photo for publicity and for our website.

Mickey reminded members that Covid is back and we will continue to assess any impact it may have on our meeting schedule. He then presented a short video presentation on a brief history of the battles in the American Revolution. It was well received and similar content may be added to future meetings.

The meeting was adjourned with the SAR closing and benediction by J. D. Denton. The next meeting will be held at a date to be announced in October, 2022.
