ANCESTOR'S SERVICE.

"Any man shall be eligible to membership in this Society, who, being of the age of twenty-one years or over, and a citizen of good repute in the community, is the lineal descendant of an ancestor, who was at all times unflinching in his loyalty to and rendered actual service in the cause of American Independence, either as an officer, soldier, seaman, marine, militiaman or minute man, in the armed forces of the Continental Congress or of any one of the several Colonies or States; or as a Signer of the Declaration of Independence; or as a member of a Committee of Safety or Correspondence, or as a member of any Continental, Provincial, or Colonial Congress or Legislature; or as a civil officer either of one of the Colonies or States or of the national government; or as a recognized patriot, who performed actual service by overt acts of resistance to the authority of Great Britain."—Constitution of National Society S. A. R., Article III, Section 1, adopted June 16, 1893.

When the applicant derives eligibility of membership by descent from more than one ancestor, and it is desired to take advantage thereof, the history of each of said ancestor's services and the intermediate generations of the pedigree may all be written upon these pages; but it is desired that the history of each ancestor shall be written upon a separate blank when possible.

State fully such documentary or traditional authority as you found the following record upon, and also the residence of ancestors if known.

My ancestor's services in assisting in the establishment of American Independence during the War of the Revolution were as follows:

*Enclosed are the following copies of a letter from the Adjt. General State of N. H. to Gen. T. S. Peck
Adjt. General State of Vt. to wit:*

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE.

Adjutant-General's Office.

Gen. T. S. Peck,

Burlington, Vt.

Dear Sir:

I find on the rolls of this office the following references
to James Hobart:

A pay roll of Capt. John Willoughby's company, Col. Chase's Regiment, reports James Hobart as enlisted Sept. 25, 1777, and discharged Oct. 25, 1777, as a private.

This company marched from Plymouth and adjacent towns Sept. 1777 to the assistance of the Northern Army under the command of Gen. Gates.

An account of supplies granted by the town of Plymouth to the families of soldiers is signed by James Hobart as a selectman, March 12, 1781.

Very respectfully,

A. D. AYLING,

Adjt.-Gen.
