

THREE GENERATIONS OF MARCOMS
INDUCTED INTO DALLAS CHAPTER

Colonel Delbert Marcom Fowler, former President of the Dallas Chapter and the 1990 Vice President for District VI of the Texas Society, third from the left, recently inducted three generations of the Marcom Family into the Dallas Chapter. Those inducted included Orval Weldon Marcom, third from the right, from the Panhandle area of Texas in Levelland; his son Dr. George Marcom, far left, of League City, Texas, near Houston; George's two sons Stephen Marcom, fourth from the extreme left, of Katy, Texas, near Houston, and Keith Marcom, second from the right, of Lewisville, near Dallas; Kelly Marcom, currently in medical school in Durham, North Carolina, also joined the chapter but could not be present for the family ceremony. Three other of the total of seven Grandsons of Weldon are also in the photograph; all three have their membership papers in process. They are Mark and Chris Wham, second from the left and far right, of Houston and Pasadena, Texas near Houston, and Greg Methvin, fifth from the left, of Levelland, Texas. Laura Marcom, wife of Weldon is shown with her "clan"; she and Weldon celebrated their 62nd wedding anniversary on this trip to Dallas.
