

The Texas Compatriot, Spring 1986 Page: 9 of 10

View a full description of this periodical.

l to r: Comps. Jim Meadows, Joe Hill, William Eddleman, Thomas Bresnehen, Tom Currie, Ray Maxie, and Robert Kurth. Eddleman and Maxie hold the new chapter charter.

—BLAINE C. WILLHOITE, SR. CHAPTER—

IRVING

At the January regular meeting Compatriot Dennis Wood spoke to the Chapter on "Defense Missiles Produced by LTV Corporation." These missiles are produced in the Irving area.

In February Compatriot John Warterfield had a talk that he based on the diary of an officer's wife who was in the Burgoyne campaign.

The "History of the United States Armed Forces" was the title of a talk given at the March Chapter Meeting by Brig. Gen. Graber Kidwell. The newly elected Chapter President is David A. Navorska.

In December, the Chapter changed its name from the Irving Chapter to the Blaine C. Willhoite, Sr. Chapter. A dinner was held and a new Charter was presented by the TXSSAR, then Councilman Morris H. Parrish talked to the Chapter.

Col. Joe Hill presents new charter for the Blaine C. Willhoite, Sr. Chapter to Blaine C. Willhoite, Sr. and Charles Lindsay, SAR Chapter President.

